CARBONDALE. CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT.

The school board met in regular session last evening. Superintendent Garr submitted his monthly report which showed among other things a total attendance of 2,381 and an average attendance of 902 males and 1,052 females. Treasurer Dimock reported having received $5,000 of the state appropriation. A communication from Architect Brown certified to the perfection of the piping of the heating apparatus put in by Hunt & Connell.

A sensation was sprung in the form of a charge of embezzlement against ex-Principal G. H. Hunt & Connell, of Scranton, and ex-Principal the Spertboilers which it declared would not generate sufficient steam to heat the building. A communication was in the form of a charge of embezzlement against ex-Principal G. H. Hunt & Connell, of Scranton, and ex-Principal the Spertboilers which it declared would not generate sufficient steam to heat the building.

SELECT COUNCIL MEETING.

At last night's meeting of the select council applications for city engineers were received from Louis Abbott and William Crago. The resolution authorizing the mayor to condemn water sheds was amended by Mr. Nealon so that the chairman of councils and selectmen be empowered to act with him. The proposition of the manufacturers to change the fire bell was amended and a resolution for a fire song on the Hendrick works was introduced. A resolution for a $1,000 building for the hose company to be erected on their lot was referred.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

L. M. Smith, of the Hendrick Manufacturing company, is visiting friends in Rochester. W. J. Byrnes, of New York, is visiting relatives in this city.

Henry Berry is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Kimball have arrived from Florida where they spent a month.

Miss Grace Hall is ill with mumps. The Pastors' Alliance met in Trinity parish house yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bassett are visiting New York friends. Hon. E. H. Hendrick and Mrs. Mrs. Eva Smith, are en route to California where they will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shepherd entertained yesterday Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dunning, of Scranton.

Frank Rommelmeyer left yesterday for Frankfort, Ky., where he will attend the funeral of Governor Goebel, who was his first cousin.

Julius Moses is the guest of Horace Fox at Sasport Springs.

PECKVILLE.

To the voters of Blakely borough: If Mr. Phillips had obtained the nomination at the primary election by a majority composed of a fair proportion of the voters of the three wards, I would regard his nomination as expressing the choice of the people of the borough. But since I received twenty-eight more votes in the First and Third wards than he received, and ten more votes in his own ward than he received in the above wards, I think it only fair that the voter should be submitted to the people of the borough at the general election on the 20th inst. During the past term I have endeavored to master the difficulties of the work of collecting the taxes. Those who wish to know the facts can learn how far I have succeeded. I solicit the support of all the citizens, assuring them that I will be able to do better during another term, if elected to the office. D. J. Williams, Blakely, Pa.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

Mayfield Council Holds a Stormy Session—Meeting of D. and H. Employees Last Night—Personals.

The Mayfield council held their monthly meeting last evening. Councilmen William Edmunds, Edmund Edmunds, James Harris, Richard Reynolds, P. H. Bergan and Alexander Shinto being present. Throughout the evening very little business was transacted, the reformers and anti-reformers being equally divided and every motion put resulting in a tie. The report of the ex-borough treasurer, showing a sum of $88,000, was read and a motion to adjourn was defeated, the objection being that several hundred dollars in the report had been paid out without orders being drawn. The report was afterwards tabled under the head of unfinished business. Edmund Edmunds suggested that the bill of C. M. Lester for $56, laid over from the last meeting, be paid. It was afterwards again laid over. Chairman Shinto stated there were two vacancies to be filled on the board of health, but on the recommendation of Edmund Edmunds no action was taken.

The following bills were read and ordered paid: Thomas Boundy, $7.50; Rushbrook Water company, $18.35; Hillside Coal company, electric lights, $23.67; M. R. Konstantine, $5; Thomas Boundy, $22; Attorney Timlin, $25; bill from William Walker for $85, amounts overpaid as borough treasurer, and several others from councilmen as witnesses in the Bergan case, and one of Secretary Daley for $15, services rendered in committee and other work, were laid over.

The meeting throughout was a stormy one, and as usual many strong personalities were indulged in. In response to a notice a number of miners and company hands assembled in Windsor hall last evening. William Westington was chairman of the meeting and Peter Kelly was secretary. We were not able to be present, but after the meeting the secretary handed us the following report, which explains itself.

The intent and purpose of the meeting was to give some sound advice to runners and drivers who had been the cause of the trouble at the Delaware and Hudson mines in Jermyrn the first three days in February. The advice given was that in the future when runners or drivers have quarrels they should refer them to the right parties and give them reasonable time to accede or refuse the demands made.

William Westington, Chairman. Peter Kelly, Secretary.

James Prior, a well known and aged resident of Scranton, Pa., who has been in failing health for some time, was taken unconscious yesterday and but little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Elias Evans and Henry Butler, of Vandling, spent Sunday here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Griffiths, of North Main street.

Dr. M. J. Shields delivered a lecture last Friday evening before the nurses of the Emergency hospital, Carbondale, on "Pneumonia in Typhoid Fever."

Thomas Mann of West Mayfield, was quite painfully injured by a fall of top coal in the Glenwood mine last Friday. It is feared he may be injured internally.

ARBEBALD.

The borough council held a regular meeting, with Messrs. Jones, Price, Scanlon, Dean, McAndrew and Siddon present. After the reading of the minutes of the preceding meetings were approved of the following bills were ordered paid: M. Price's committee work, $40; William McAndrew, police duty, $40; Thomas Finnerty, committee work, $10; Joseph Evans, labor, $1.25; Fred Linde, feeding prisoner, $1.50; John McHale, police salary, $40; P. H. Loftus, committee work, $6; Edward Wilson, police duty, $1; Martin Cawley, lumber, $81; Archibald Citizen, printing, $1.50; Mrs. P. Moran, cleaning borough building, $6; Crescent Electric company, light $228; Gitta Percha Hose company, hose $252.62. A communication was received from William Brennan of Salem street, asking for damages caused on his property by the recent rains. The water running into his cellar through the inability of council to have the drains repaired. The matter was left in the hands of the road committee. The bill of James Coleman, for horse hire, and of T. J. Gildea, for legal services, amounting to $3 and $15 respectively, were laid over for investigation. The pole tax ordinance was next taken up for third and final reading and was passed by the following vote: Ayes—Jones, Price, Dean, Siddon and McAndrew, 5; nay—Scanlon, 1. A committee consisting of Messrs. Price, McAndrew and Siddon was appointed to distribute the hose, which was recently purchased by council, to places of good location in each of the three wards. There being no other business, the council adjourned to meet the last Monday in the month, J. A. Foote and P. A. Philbin are in New York city.

The Honoria Robekal lodge, No. 55, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this place, will conduct a masquerade social on February 22 in Ringsdorf's hall.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Coming Borough Election—Masquerade Ball of the Taylor Hose Company—Personals and Other News Matters.

The coming borough election, with but one week to elapse, promises to be one of much interest to the voters of this town. The much discussed question of the bonding of the borough for the erection of a high school for the sum of $20,000 will be decided, and the candidates in various wards will settle their difficulties for the offices of council and school director and other minor ward offices. The Republicans have completed their ticket weeks ago, while the citizens have just made up their minds. In the First ward the Republican ticket is made up of all good and honest men, and well acquainted with the duties they will be called upon to perform.

Yesterday was pay-day at the Archibald colliery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. Miss Mabel A. Knight and Henry Daniels, both popular young people of South Jersey, were quietly married recently by the Rev. James Benninger of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church, of Hyde Park.

One of the grandest affairs in the line of amusement ever held in this town will be held in Weber's rink on Thursday evening, February 8, when the Taylor Hose company, No. 1, will conduct their first masquerade ball. Extensive preparations are being made by the members to make the event a grand success, and those who desire to attend can be assured an evening of much pleasure. The Redmen's society of this town has accepted the invitation and will attend in a body in full dress costumes. The Century Hose company, of Scranton, will also be present in full dress and in the evening a large number of tickets have been disposed of. Admission, only twenty-five cents. Costumes can be had at Weber's for the event.

The employees of the Taylor, Pyne and Holden collieries will be paid for the month of January today.

All arrangements have been completed for the social of the Pride of Lackawanna lodge, No. 18, American Protestant Ladies' association, to be held in their rooms in Reese's hall this evening. All are cordially invited.

Don't forget to attend the grand concert to be held at the Calvary Baptist church on Thursday evening next, if you desire an evening of much laughter and enjoyment.

OLD FORGE.

Eddie, the youngest son of Charles Miller, who died of diphtheria, was interred in the Marcy cemetery on Wednesday.

Benjamin, the youngest son of William Carey, was quite seriously injured at the Simpson & Vatkias mines by being squeezed between cars.

The Ladies' Home Missionary society will meet at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage Thursday afternoon.

William Light and Miss Lizzie Jackson spent Sunday with friends at Carverton.

At the Republican caucus the following men were nominated for the various offices: Burgess, Reese Willis Reese; tax collector, Henry Harding; school directors, Robert Johnson and John Cook, three years; John Rimmer and Frank Conosky, two years; William Repp and William Gwyn, one year; council, William Evans, Frederick Cox and Antonio Biancardi, three years; John R. Morgans and Frederick Taylor, two years; David Eavis and Clarence Snyder, one year; assessor, John Jenkins; auditors, William Williams, Walter Cavill and Joseph Robson; register of voters, Arthur Steward and David Matthews.

OLYPHANT.

The J's and K's of the Initial society, of the Blakely Baptist church, will serve a turkey supper in the parsonage on Main street, Blakely, tomorrow evening between the hours of 5 and 9 o'clock. The price of supper is 25 cents. The ladies are famed locally for their generous spreads.

The employees of the Eddy Creek colliery were paid yesterday.

On Saturday morning, Miss Ivor Thomas, of Blakely, placed a can of molasses which had been frozen in the oven to thaw. Shortly afterward in removing it from the oven the can burst and Mrs. Thomas was very painfully burned about the face by the hot molasses.

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., of Davis, N. J., has accepted the call given him by the members of the Blakely Baptist church here and will begin his ministry at this place Sunday, February 24.

John Langhan has accepted a position at Scranton.

The members of the Congregational church will hold an entertainment and THEATRICAL.

"Faust" at the Lyceum. Lewis Morrison's "Faust" is one of the best plays ever done that never grows old and never wears out drawing powers. It attracted an audience to the Lyceum last night that crowded that house to the doors and many were compelled to content themselves with standing room.

Morrison is not with the company, the role of Mephisto falling to Erroll Dunbar, who models the character strictly on Morrison lines. Miss Genevieve Kane made a pretty and capable Marguerite and there were a number of other very good people in the company.

The play was presented with the wealth of scenery and mechanical and electrical effects for which Mr. Morrison's version of Goethe's story is famed the country over.

"The Woman in Black."

"The Woman in Black" was the attraction at the Academy of Music last night, as presented by the Gibney-Hoeffler company, which opened a week's engagement at the house. The play was greeted by an audience which crowded the theatre and manifested its appreciation of the play in an extraordinary manner. The play is a melodrama and has a cleverly devised, ingenious plot, which deals with the seamy side of New York politics, the machinations of a ward boss, Simon Kranzler, and his followers, being vividly and forcefully brought to light.

Morgan Gibney is cast for the part of the above-mentioned power and fills the role almost to perfection. His make-up is excellent, his language and gestures clever, and his general acting very realistic. He is backed up by a couple of lieutenants, inferior ward heelers, who make almost as great a hit as does the star himself.

Nellie Gibney takes the leading female role, and as Madame Zenda excellently portrays a mysterious individual who comes into the play in black. She is, to quote the words of Kranzler, "a sort of female Svengali," and her hypnotic powers are used as a tool by the villainous heeler, Mabel Fowler, as Jimp, an abused ward, is natural and winsome, and made a great hit with the audience.

Frank D. Melville is the statesman hero of the play, who runs for congress and defeats John Crane, his villainous opponent, who is backed in his fight for the election by Kranzler.

Melville made a favorable impression in all days and in the first act displayed pugilistic ability of no mean order, by delivering two beautiful knockout blows on the duo of above-mentioned ward heelers.

In the course of the performance various pleasing specialties were introduced, the most notable being that of Valora making an especially large hit. This afternoon the company will present the new "Charity Ball," while this evening's attraction will be the Cuban melodrama, "The Last Stroke."

Grasshopper Burlesquers.

At the Casino yesterday afternoon the Crane Brothers' "Grasshopper" burlesquers began a three days' engagement. They had crowded houses afternoon and evening.

The performance opens with an olio in which are half a dozen good turns. One of the most laughable is contributed by Crane, brother of the "Mad-mud" Rubes. Their grotesque make-up and odd antics convulsed the audience last night. Miss Agnes A. Miles sang several songs in a very acceptable manner, and Hastings and Wright, singers and comedians, were given a cordial reception. The Denning sisters and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Spain also had numbers in the olio.

The performance closes with a burlesque on "Naughty Anthony," entitled "Haughty Anthony." Blanche Bate's "locking display" scene was duplicated in a very entertaining way. Saphire, a funny dancer, also appears in the burlesque.

"A Stranger in a Strange Land."

"A Stranger in a Strange Land" from present indications will play to one of the largest engagements at the Lyceum this evening of the season.

Although presented for the first time in this city its reputation has preceded it. It is to be given under the direction of Managers William A. Brady and John R. Crisamer. It is a farcical play, written by Sidney Wilder and Walter Vincent, and has scored such a triumph that future efforts of those gentlemen will be looked for with avidity. For weeks past "A Stranger in a Strange Land" has kept the metropolis laughing and crowded the theater where it was presented.

Perhaps one of the greatest reasons for its success in this country is its being free from any suggestions, such as taint the French farces, with which New York has been overrun for two seasons. It is clean, pure and wholesome in the fun and yet broadly farcical.
